LOCAL NEWS.

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 1.

PROSPECTS BRIGHTENING. - The adjournment of Congress, the change in the weather. the expected arrival of coal boats from Cumberland, and the increased receipts of fish from the Potomac fisheries have partially removed the despondency which has oppressed the unfortunate inhabitants of this city, for some time past, and the cheerful and happy faces, met in the thoroughfares this morning, were indicative, it is to be hoped, of the approach of better times.

THE BIG SHOW .- The big show, with its vanied assortment of animated nature, including its educated monkeys and the boneless man, after affording extatic pleasure to the children of the city, left, yesterday morning, in the ferry boats, for Washington. Some Indians, who were here last Saturday evening, visited the show, and were as much the objects of curious observation to the rest of the visitors as the day, the anniversary of the Bible Society; Wednesday, the Young Men's Christian Association, and on Thursday the Temperance organizations have been invited to hold an an-able property. Detectives Clarvoe and Mc-Devitt being assigned to the duty of ferreting out the thieves, arrested Solomon Smith and his wife, Martha, (colored,) who had been employed by Mr. Richards. On searching the house in which they lived the officers discovered some of the property and about $500 of the money concealed in a mattress.
